

Ennerdale & Kinniside Parish Council

CO-OPTION POLICY

Co-option Policy: Members considered a policy on the formal arrangements that would be undertaken in the event that any co-option of Councillors is required.

This policy was reviewed and adopted on 07.11.2023 Minute reference 971/11/23, reconfirmed on 21.01.2025, minute 1108/01/25.

Legal requirements

Ss 79 and 80 Local Government Act 1972 (qualification for co-option); s89(6) Local Government Act 1972 (filling of vacancies)

PROCEDURE

1. Statutory process

The co-option procedure is managed by the Parish Council, and this policy will ensure that a fair and equitable process is carried out.

Co-option of a parish councillor occurs in two instances:

1. When an ordinary vacancy has arisen on the Parish Council after the ordinary elections held every four years;
2. When a casual vacancy has arisen on the Parish Council and no poll (by-election) has been called.

An ordinary vacancy occurs when there are insufficient candidates to fill all the seats on the Parish Council at the ordinary elections held every four years. Any candidates who were nominated are automatically elected to the Parish Council and any remaining vacancies are known as "ordinary vacancies". Provided there are enough parish councillors to constitute a quorum, the Parish Council is usually able to co-opt volunteers to fill the vacancies.

A casual vacancy occurs when either:

- A councillor fails to make his declaration of acceptance of office at the proper time
- A councillor resigns
- A councillor dies
- A councillor becomes disqualified
- A councillor fails for six (6) months to attend meetings of a council committee or sub-committee or to attend as a representative of the council a meeting of an outside body unless their absence is authorised in accordance with legislation.

The Parish Council has to notify Cumberland Council of a casual vacancy and then advertise the vacancy and give electors the opportunity to request an election. This occurs when ten (10) electors write to Cumberland Council stating that an election is requested. Cumberland Council will organise that election and the Parish Council will pay the costs of the election. Electors have fourteen days (not including weekends, bank holidays and other notable days), to claim the by-election.

If more than one (1) candidate is then nominated a by-election takes place but if only one (1) candidate is put forward they are duly elected without a ballot

Ennerdale & Kinniside Parish Council

If ten (10) residents do not request a ballot within fourteen (14) days of the vacancy notice being posted the Parish Council is able to co-opt a volunteer.

The Clerk will:

- Advertise the vacancy for four weeks (other period as the Parish Council may agree) on the Parish Council notice boards and website
- Advise Cumberland Council that the co-option policy has been instigated

This procedure will also apply in the case of an ordinary vacancy where the Returning Officer has confirmed that there were insufficient nominations to fill all the seats but there are sufficient parish councillors elected to constitute a quorum.

2. Eligibility of Candidates

The Parish Council is able to consider any person to fill a vacancy provided that:

- They are 18 or over
- They are a British citizen, a qualifying Commonwealth citizen or a citizen of any other member state of the European Union (at the moment) and at least one of the following apply:

- They are an elector for the Parish and continue to be an elector
- They have resided in the Parish for the past twelve months or rented/tenanted land in the Parish
- Their principal or only place of work was in the Parish for the past twelve months
- They have lived within three miles of the Parish for the past twelve months.

There are certain disqualifications for being a parish councillor, of which the main ones are:

- Holding a paid office or employment under the Parish Council
- Bankruptcy
- Having been sentenced to a term of imprisonment (whether suspended or not) of not less than three months, without the option of a fine during the preceding five years
- Being disqualified under any enactment relating to corrupt or illegal electoral practices.
- You are subject to the notification requirement of or under Part 2 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003

3. Applications

Candidates will be requested to:

- Attend at least one Parish Council meeting as observers (to gain some understanding of process and Council business)
- Submit information about themselves, by way of completing a short application form (a copy of the application form is attached)
- Confirm their eligibility for the position of parish councillor within the statutory rules, (a copy of the eligibility form is attached).

Ennerdale & Kinniside Parish Council

Following receipt of applications, the next suitable Parish Council meeting will have an agenda item to receive written applications for the office of Parish Councillor and to co-opt a candidate to fill the existing vacancy. Eligible candidates will be invited to attend the meeting. Copies of the eligible candidates' applications will be circulated to all parish councillors by the Clerk at least 3 clear days prior to the meeting of the full Parish Council, when the co-option will be considered. All such documents will be treated by the Clerk and all parish councillors as strictly private and confidential.

4. Procedure at the Co-option meeting

At the co-option meeting, candidates will be given five minutes maximum to introduce themselves to the parish councillors, give information on their background and experience and explain why they wish to become a member of the Parish Council. The process will be carried out in the public session and there will be no private discussions between members prior to a vote being taken. However, where the Parish Council is discussing the merits of candidates and inevitably their personal attributes, this could be prejudicial, and the Parish Council should resolve to exclude the members of the press and public.

As soon as all candidates have finished giving their submissions, the Parish Council will proceed to a vote with each candidate being proposed and seconded by the councillors in attendance (as defined in the Standing Orders) and a vote by a show of hands (LGA 1972 Sch. 12. Para 13). A recorded vote may be requested under Standing Orders so as to show whether each councillor present and voting, gave his/her vote for or against that question. In order for a candidate to be co-opted to the Parish Council, it will be necessary for them to obtain an absolute majority of votes cast (50% + 1 of the votes available at the meeting). If there are more than two candidates and there is no candidate with an overall majority in the first round of voting the candidate with the least number of votes will drop out of the process. Further rounds of voting will then take place with the process repeated until a candidate has an absolute majority.

If present, a candidate who is co-opted will sign at the co-option meeting a Declaration of Acceptance of Office, including an undertaking to abide by the Parish Council's Code of Conduct, and may take office thereafter. If not present, a co-opted candidate will sign the Declaration of Acceptance of Office either before or at the next meeting of the Parish Council. The Clerk will notify Cumberland Council's Returning Officer of the co-option of the new parish councillor(s).

The co-opted parish councillor will complete a Notification of Disclosable Pecuniary and Other Interests form which the Clerk will lodge with the Monitoring Officer at Cumberland Council within 28 days of the co-option.

If insufficient candidates are co-opted, the process should continue, whereby the vacancies are again advertised.

Budget Implications

Whilst there will be the usual costs for Cumberland Council to process any election this co-option procedure should incur minimal costs.

Risk Management Implications if any

This arrangement will ensure that the Council complies with its legal obligations and ensures transparency in its co-option procedure.
